BOOK WRITING MASTER CLASS WITH DR. JASON KARP

SAN DIEGO, CA – Many people want to write a book and get it published, but few know how to do it. Until now. In Book Writing Master Class, bestselling author of eight books Dr. Jason Karp teaches the skill to become a proficient writer and takes the want-to-be author through all the steps of how to develop a book idea and write a winning proposal to submit to a publisher. And for those whose proposal and writing are good enough, Dr. Karp will choose a few writers to introduce to his literary agent.

“To write a book, you can’t wait for inspiration to hit you like some lightning bolt; you have to create the lightning bolt yourself,” says Dr. Karp. “And that’s when the real work begins.”

In Book Writing Master Class, Jason Karp teaches you everything he knows about the book writing process, including the habits he has developed and the successful method he has used to become a published author, so that you can become one yourself.
